

USHBC Supports Passage of the Laken Riley Act

WASHINGTON DC, DC, UNITED STATES, January 23, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The United States Hispanic Business Council \(USHBC\) commends bipartisan members of Congress for passing the Laken Riley Act. The USHBC has consistently called for the rapid identification, detention, and deportation of known criminals, and remains committed to working with members of Congress on common sense, bipartisan immigration legislation.

Javier Palomarez, USHBC President and CEO, issued the following statement:

"I applaud lawmakers for upholding their commitment to safeguarding our communities and creating the secure, stable environment necessary for small businesses and families to prosper. This is exactly what the American people deserve and what the business community needs on such a complex issue. Immigration is not a Democratic problem or a Republican problem—it is an American challenge. One in which we expect our elected officials to rise above partisanship and come together for the greater good of our nation."

The USHBC commends the leadership of Congressman Mike Collins (R-GA), Senators Katie Britt (R-AL) and James Lankford (R-OK) in introducing this legislation, as well as the support of Senator Bernie Moreno (R-OH) and Congressman Juan Ciscomani (R-AZ). The USHBC also commends the 46 Democratic representatives and 12 senators for having the courage to put party politics aside and cross party lines on this common-sense measure, including Senators John Fetterman (PA), Ruben Gallego (AZ), and Catherine Cortez Masto (NV) Congressmen Henry Cuellar (TX), Marie Gluesenkamp Perez (WA), Vicente Gonzalez (TX), and Jared Golden (ME), among others.

Javier continued by saying:

“No bill is perfect, and compromise is an inherent part of the process. At its core, the Laken Riley Act represents a significant step forward, delivering far more benefits than drawbacks. Poor immigration policy affects every American and every business across our nation. I am pleased to see our elected officials set aside differences and come together to advance a measure that serves the best interests of the American people and the small business community.”
