

Dr. Danyel Nicole Black Launches New Website and E-Book, The Queen's Order, Empowering Girls and Women Globally

Certified life coach, author, motivational speaker, and emcee, Dr. Black founded the nonprofit, Crown Me Foundation and launched the Aware Black Women movement.

NEW ORLEANS, LA, UNITED STATES, February 18, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Dr. Danyel Nicole Black, certified life coach, author, motivational speaker, and emcee, captivates audiences with her engaging and heartfelt storytelling in her new e-book, The Queen's Order.

"The Queen's Order is more than a guide—it's a declaration of your power to transform pain into growth, chaos into clarity, and dreams into reality", says Dr. Black. Her service work began when she recognized the need to support girls and women, especially those from traditionally marginalized communities, as they navigate life's challenges and social adversities. Her leadership and commitment to service are exemplified by her numerous awards, participation in various organizations, and volunteerism.

With a Doctorate in Educational Leadership from Pacific University, which focused on identifying and addressing barriers to educational mobility, equity, success, and motivation, she founded the Crown Me Foundation in 2020. The foundation is a service non-profit organization dedicated to the empowerment of girls and women. Its mission is to promote personal confidence, worth, and high standards through our programmatic and social efforts.

Through effective programming, sustainable partnerships, and energetic volunteers, Crown Me Foundation has positively impacted the lives of countless girls and women, continuing to blaze trails with its signature Pink & Gold initiatives. The initiatives identify and improve social determinants, including education, health, economics, and community, through effective
