

Axis Therapy Centers Receives Accreditation from Autism Commission on Quality (ACQ)

LOUISVILLE, KY, UNITED STATES, January 31, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Autism Commission on Quality (ACQ) has awarded a full two-year accreditation to Axis Therapy Centers for its applied behavior analysis (ABA) programs in Iowa.

This newly accredited organization offers ABA healthcare services to individuals and families impacted by autism. Its program was evaluated against ACQ's Applied Behavior Analysis Accreditation Program Standards and Guide.

“We believe that accreditation is not just a recognition but a commitment to ongoing improvement, assuring our clients and partners that they are associated with an organization dedicated to the highest standards,” said Kristin Hanson, chief executive officer of Axis Therapy Centers.

Axis Therapy Centers is a multi-disciplinary clinic for children and adolescents with autism, developmental disabilities, and special needs. Its services include Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) therapy, speech therapy, occupational therapy, feeding therapy, social skills groups, preschool prep groups, caregiver training, summer day camps, and training to schools and outside organizations. Axis' mission is to be an extension of clients' families by providing compassionate and personalized treatment.

“People with autism deserve high-quality ABA services,” said Erick Dubuque, director of ACQ. “Organizations applying for accreditation from the Autism Commission on Quality must meet rigorous standards for patient care, administration, and transparency. Axis Therapy Centers underwent a thorough review process to earn its accreditation.”

ACQ’s review process includes a wide range of business, clinical, and quality improvement activities to promote best practices and evidence-based pathways. The assessment considers clinical observations and satisfaction surveys from patients and staff, leadership interviews, and a desktop review.

ACQ continues to accept new applications for its two-year accreditation from organizations offering ABA as a healthcare service to individuals with autism. To learn more, visit autismcommission.org.
