The reelection of President Trump and his new Administration could usher in significant changes across the labor and employment landscape, impacting businesses in all industries. During this seminar, PLDO’s Employment Law attorneys, William E. O’Gara, Matthew C. Reeber and Kathryn M. Couture, will present important information, answer attendees’ questions and provide best practices on how business should prepare for:

- Potential changes to the Fair Labor Standards Act
- Rollbacks on pro-union NLRB policies
- Changes to key wage, hour and employee classification laws
- Potential end of FTC’s non-compete agreements
