Bidding Opens 12 February

A masterpiece of mountain contemporary design by renowned architect Robert Ziegelman, 56 Rose Crown spans over 10,000 square feet across three harmonious pavilions. Set on 4.24 acres of pristine landscape adjacent to USFS land, the residence commands phenomenal views of Beaver Creek Resort's ski slopes from its position in Mountain Star's gated enclave. Extensive glass walls frame spectacular vistas while flooding interiors with natural light. The estate combines two homesites for unprecedented privacy, enhanced by meticulous landscaping featuring cascading water features and dual sunken hot tubs. Superior craftsmanship defines every space, from the sophisticated great room to the professional-grade theater, wine cellar, and separate guest quarters. A new DaVinci roof crowns this architectural triumph, which seamlessly integrates with its majestic Rocky Mountain setting.

3000 Mount Veeder Road, Mount Veeder, Napa Valley, California
Listed for US$19.5 million by Arthur Goodrich and Federico Parlagreco of Sotheby's International Realty Wine Country - St. Helena Brokerage
Starting bids are expected between US$7.5 million–US$14 million
Bidding Opens 12 February

3000 Mount Veeder Road is an architectural masterpiece set in the heart of Napa Valley's prestigious Mount Veeder AVA offering ultimate valley and vineyard vistas. Spanning 130± acres, this exceptional property blends modernism, Art Deco, and Deconstructivism, creating a one-of-a-kind estate that captures the essence of refined living. The villa residence, designed by UK-based architect David Connor, features angular lines, dark marble, and sculptural elements, while the towering guest structure—said to be the tallest in Napa County—boasts panoramic views of the valley. Surrounded by eight-plus acres of award-winning Cabernet vineyards, the estate includes a tranquil pool and a two-bedroom caretaker's home. This property offers a rare opportunity for the discerning buyer to experience a world-class combination of architecture and viticulture—whether for relaxation, entertainment, or personal enrichment.

The Veeder House wines, direct from Napa Valley, will also take center stage in the Sotheby's American Terroir wine auction. Harvested from premier Cabernet Sauvignon vines from the property, these vintages—spanning 2009 to 2021—are celebrated for their intensity and complexity. Crafted in collaboration with acclaimed winemaker Chad Alexander, the wines reflect the elegance and depth that define Mount Veeder's renowned terroir. Bidding for the online auction is now open and will conclude on 27 February starting at 10 AM EST. Visit sothebys.com for more information and to register to bid.
