MSTRO, a privately owned company redefining human potential by revolutionizing how we reason through data to drive innovation, is pleased to announce the appointment of Patrick Eikenaar as Chief Operating Officer (COO), effective February 1, 2025. With a distinguished career spanning 20+ years in operational leadership and strategy, Patrick will be instrumental in driving MSTRO's growth and operational excellence as the company continues to scale.

MSTRO's unwavering commitment to innovation, cutting-edge technology, and customer-centric solutions aligns seamlessly with my passion for scaling businesses and driving operational excellence.”

Patrick Eikenaar

“We are thrilled to welcome Patrick to the MSTRO team,” said Chris Busch, Founder and CEO of MSTRO. “His extensive experience with data centers, global operations, customer care, pre-sales, fostering innovation and building high-performing teams will play a critical role in strengthening our operational framework and accelerating our mission to elevating human potential with MSTRO's solutions.”

Patrick Eikenaar brings a wealth of expertise to MSTRO, having served in leadership roles at several companies, including Dell Technologies and Leaseweb Global. Over his career, he has overseen large-scale transformations, optimized operational efficiencies, aligned IT and business operations for scalability and compliance, spearheaded sustainability initiatives and worked closely with investors, global tech leaders, and government institutions to drive multi-million-dollar growth initiatives. Patrick's strategic vision and commitment to operational excellence have consistently resulted in improved efficiency, growth, and customer satisfaction.

“I am honored and excited to join MSTRO at such a pivotal moment in its growth journey.” said Patrick Eikenaar. “MSTRO is at the forefront of redefining how humans work with AI, shaping the future of intelligent work and getting the best out of human potential. The company's unwavering commitment to innovation, cutting-edge technology, and customer-centric solutions aligns seamlessly with my passion for scaling businesses and driving operational excellence. I am excited to join this exceptional team to expand MSTRO's global footprint, deliver transformative results, and unlock new avenues for sustainable growth."

As COO, Patrick will oversee MSTRO's operational strategy, aligning the company's resources, processes, and teams to ensure seamless execution of business objectives. His focus will include scaling MSTRO's operations, optimizing workflows, and driving innovation across all departments.
