

Collaborative Practice Institute Of Michigan Joins Divorce With Respect Week®

CPIM members are joining a nationwide effort for people interested in learning about their options for how to go through the divorce process.

MI, UNITED STATES, February 6, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Members of the Collaborative Practice Institute of Michigan (CPIM) will offer free 30-minute divorce consultations during Divorce With Respect Week® from March 3-9, 2025. CPIM members are joining a nationwide effort for people interested in learning about their options for how to go through the divorce process.

“The Collaborative Practice Institute of Michigan is committed to helping families through their divorce,” said President of Collaborative Practice Institute of Michigan Jennifer DeYoung. “The Collaborative Divorce process provides divorcing couples with the tools and knowledge to make informed decisions that minimizes conflict and supports healthier outcomes.”
