accused of committing massive fraud by charging millions for medical services that were never performed.”

Hunter R. Eley is a Co-Founder and Managing Partner of DAE, also serving as chair of the firm’s financial services practice. Mr. Eley’s experience extends across all lines of the consumer lending business, including issues arising out of retail and online banking, mortgage lending and servicing, credit cards, healthcare loans and auto loans. “With 25 years of experience, his expertise spans all levels of litigation, including arguing cases of first impression in the Ninth Circuit, handling appeals in the California Court of Appeal and routinely appearing in state and federal trial courts nationwide,” states the publisher.

“Some of Mr. Eley's recent notable achievements include prevailing on an issue of first impression to defeat statewide class action claims at the pleading stage for one of the nation's largest insurance companies,” according to the profile. The publication continues, “He was also selected as national counsel to defend a major tech company against a wave of "Right to Repair" class actions in multiple jurisdictions across the country.”

Frequently honored for his legal acumen and impact, Mr. Eley was recognized by Lawdragon in its “2025’s 500 Leading Litigators in America.”
