

Joe Bonamassa Sets the Stage for a Blockbuster 2025 Summer Tour Including LA's Greek Theatre, Red Rocks, and More

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, February 10, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Fresh off his fiery live performance at the Grammy's Premiere Show, blues-rock icon Joe Bonamassa has announced his highly anticipated 2025 U.S. Summer Tour—a limited run of amphitheater dates set to bring his electrifying show to some of the nation's most breathtaking venues. Kicking off July 31st at the Greek Theatre in Los Angeles, CA, the tour will feature just a handful of special performances, including a return to Red Rocks Amphitheatre on August 8th. Bonamassa's past performances at Red Rocks have been unforgettable for fans, inspiring two acclaimed live films—both of which debuted at #1 on the Billboard Blues Albums chart—further solidifying his status as one of the genre's most celebrated live performers. Additional stops include Vina Robles Amphitheatre in Paso Robles, CA, Hayden Homes Amphitheater in Bend, OR, and Sandia Resort & Casino Amphitheater in Albuquerque, NM.

A special fan pre-sale begins on Tuesday, February 11th at 10 am local time. The public on-sale opens Friday, February 14th at 10 am local time. For more information and tickets, visit www.jbonamassa.com/tour-dates

Adding to the excitement, Bonamassa has also been announced as part of the powerhouse lineup for the 2025 Bourbon & Beyond festival, one of the nation's hottest music festivals, taking place in Louisville, KY on September 11th-14th. Known for blending world-class music with Kentucky's best bourbon and culinary experiences, Bourbon & Beyond is a premier destination for rock, blues, and Americana fans alike.

The 2025 U.S. Summer Tour announcement follows what has already been a landmark year for Bonamassa. He recently teamed up with rock legend Sammy Hagar for the release of his blistering new single, "Fortune Teller Blues," a hard-hitting track that blends Bonamassa's searing guitar work with Hagar's unmistakable vocals. The collaboration has been met with widespread acclaim, adding another milestone to Bonamassa's ever-evolving career. Watch the official music video HERE

Before his summer dates, Bonamassa will hit the road for his U.S. Spring 2025 Tour, launching next week on February 16 in Seattle, WA, with stops in New York City, Chicago, Atlanta, and more before wrapping up in Melbourne, FL on March 19. From there, he'll take to the high seas for the 10th Anniversary Keeping the Blues Alive at Sea X Cruise (March 21-26, 2025)—a sold-out floating blues festival featuring an all-star lineup, including Big Head Todd and the Monsters, Larkin Poe, Christone "Kingfish" Ingram, Samantha Fish, Joanne Shaw Taylor, and more. The cruise departs from Miami, Florida, and sails to Harvest Caye, Belize, and Costa Maya, Mexico, offering fans an unforgettable experience of live performances, special collaborations, and unique fan interactions. Event partners Bonamassa and Sixthman continue to make history, with three consecutive Keeping the Blues Alive at Sea cruises selling out: the March 2025 U.S. cruise, the September 2025 Alaska cruise, and now the newly announced March 2026 U.S. cruise.

Bonamassa will then embark on an extensive European tour, which includes a headlining run across the UK and Europe, followed by a highly anticipated series of dates with his supergroup Black Country Communion. After these international performances, he will return stateside for his limited-run summer amphitheater tour, bringing his signature blues-rock mastery to some of the country's most iconic outdoor venues.

Beyond his relentless touring schedule, Bonamassa is also back in the studio, working on new material set for release later this year, continuing to push boundaries while staying true to his blues roots.
