This marks Tomlin's first foray into theatrical filmmaking, bringing his unparalleled reputation and authenticity in contemporary Christian music to the big screen. Hailed by TIME Magazine as the "most often sung artist in the world," Tomlin's global impact includes an astounding 21 number-one radio singles, 30 top-ten hits (the most of any Christian artist), and over 7 billion streams. With a career spanning decades, he has spent more than 158 weeks at number one on radio, solidifying his place as a defining voice in Christian music.

In 2016, Tomlin joined an elite group of only four artists—alongside Justin Timberlake, Pitbull, and Garth Brooks—to receive the Sound Exchange Digital Radio Award for surpassing 1 billion digital radio streams. He also holds the distinction of being the first Christian artist to reach 1 billion streams on Pandora, earning the platform's prestigious BILLIONAIRE award.

Chris Tomlin's Personal Connection to The Last Supper

"I have always said that worship is more about seeing than singing and years ago, I was leading worship in Israel and that understanding was deeply reinforced. While standing in the place and seeing where Jesus gave His life, I was profoundly moved, reflecting on His final moments on Earth. That experience was a marking moment in my life," shared Tomlin. "In watching THE LAST SUPPER film I have had that same spiritual encounter. My prayer is that this film will meet people where they are and make a deep and eternal impact on their lives."
