A graduate of Abilene Christian University with a bachelor's degree in marketing, Brown believes in tailoring solutions to meet each customer's unique needs. His philosophy aligns with DOCUvation's mission to provide innovative office technology, managed IT services and cybersecurity solutions.

Beyond his professional achievements, Brown is committed to serving his community. He is the past chairman of the South Texas Business Partnership, serves on the board of directors for Junior Achievement of South Texas and is a member of the Texas Business Hall of Fame, which recognizes and inspires business leaders across the state.

“I’m incredibly honored to be recognized among such an inspiring group of professionals,” Brown said. “San Antonio is a special place to live and work, and I’m grateful for the opportunity to make a positive impact both through DOCUvation and in the community.”

The 40 Under 40 honorees will be recognized at a special event March 6, 2025, marking the 30th anniversary of the award. For three decades, the San Antonio Business Journal has highlighted young leaders who are shaping the region’s future, reinforcing the importance of innovation, leadership and service in the business community.
