SaiRam Collections: Redefining Fashion, Embracing Diversity

Founded in 2012 by Simoun Andres and his godmother, Ramily Santillan, SaiRam Collections was born out of a shared vision to create a versatile clothing line that caters to the diverse needs of fashion enthusiasts. Over the years, the brand has earned a reputation for offering affordable yet dependable styling services, providing elegant dresses, gowns, and suits for a wide array of clients, including renowned personalities and celebrities.

A Legacy of Excellence and Innovation

Simoun Andres' creative prowess and dedication to quality have propelled SaiRam Collections to the forefront of the fashion industry. The brand has garnered widespread acclaim, featured in prestigious magazines and online publications such as MEGA Magazine, Wedding Essentials, and RARE Magazine. Simoun's commitment to showcasing the rich cultural heritage of the Philippines has also been recognized, with a notable appearance at the Philippine Independence Day parade in Manhattan, where he showcased exquisite Filipiniana gowns and Barong Tagalog designs.

A Testament to Talent and Dedication

In March 2024, Simoun Andres took his brand to new heights by participating in Paris Fashion Week, where SaiRam Collections' exquisite designs captivated an international audience. His exceptional talent and dedication to the craft were further acknowledged by the City of Pasig, honoring him with the title Natatanging Pasigueño for his outstanding contributions to the fashion industry.

Empowering the Fashion Industry with SaiRam Collections

SaiRam Collections' mission is rooted in providing a wide range of selections for clothing lines and limitless design innovations. With a focus on quality and workmanship, the brand continues to set new standards in the fashion industry, supporting talented sewers and delivering value-driven, high-quality clothing lines to its clientele.
