A Legacy of Excellence in European Auto Repair
From its humble beginnings to becoming a leading NAPA AutoCare Center, Integrated Automotive Services has consistently provided customers with groundbreaking maintenance and repair solutions. The shop’s team of ASE-certified technicians uses professional diagnostic tools and OEM-quality parts to ensure vehicles receive the care they deserve.

Unwavering Commitment to Customer Satisfaction Integrated Automotive Services has been based on a customer-first philosophy since day one. Over the past three and a half decades, the shop has fostered long-term relationships with customers who trust its expertise for everything from routine maintenance to complex engine repairs.

"For 35 years, we have remained dedicated to providing high-quality European auto repair services with integrity and expertise. Our customers are the heart of our success," said Adam McGinley, Owner of Integrated Automotive Services. "We take pride in delivering honest, reliable, and professional service to every customer who walks through our doors."

Continuing a Tradition of Automotive Excellence

With eight fully equipped service bays, the shop efficiently handles a wide range of repair and maintenance services, including brake repair, transmission work, air conditioning repair, and more. The shop also stands behind its work, offering a 2-year/24,000-mile warranty on parts and services. We have 35 years of European auto repair under our belt, and we are just getting started!

Message from the Owner

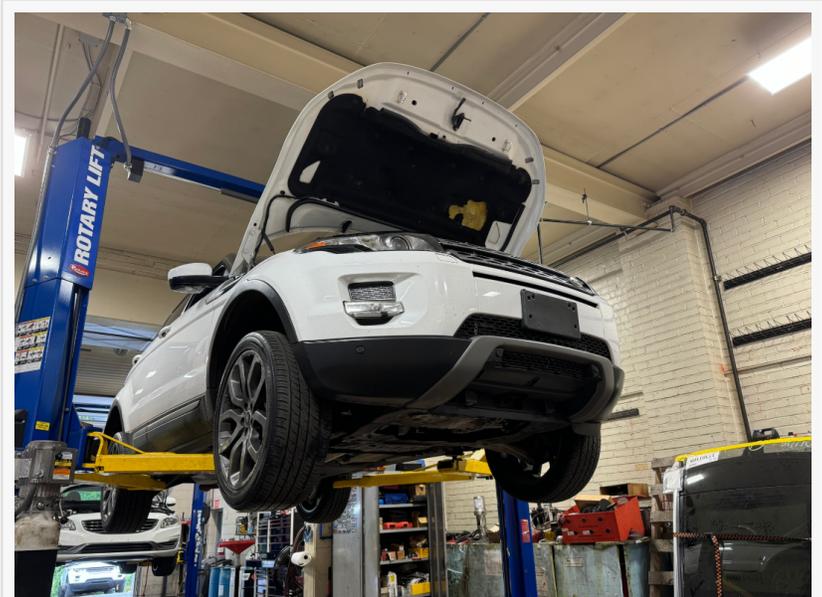

"For 35 years, we have been committed to providing expert European auto repair services with integrity and precision. Our longevity is a testament to the trust our customers place in us."
