Through her literary works and advocacy, she has touched countless lives, encouraging individuals to embrace their authentic selves. Her expertise in storytelling and mentorship adds a profound depth to Being Me is Enough, making it a must-read for children everywhere.

A Transformational Series for Young Minds

The Being Me is Enough series aims to inspire children of all backgrounds to embrace their uniqueness and develop self-assurance. Each book in the series presents relatable characters and compelling narratives that encourage emotional intelligence, resilience, and positive self-perception. With themes of inclusion, perseverance, and self-worth, the series provides young readers with the tools to cultivate a strong and positive mindset.

"We believe that every child deserves to know that they are enough just as they are," says Dr. Iris Wright. "This series is our way of fostering self-love, confidence, and resilience in children, ensuring they grow up with a strong sense of self-worth."

Join the Movement

The launch of Being Me is Enough marks the beginning of an exciting journey for young readers, parents, and educators alike. The series will be released in stages throughout 2025, accompanied by engaging book signings, interactive events, and virtual discussions.
