"Grossman and Fuller have delivered both a thrilling read and a terrifying warning that today's geopolitical fiction could very well become tomorrow's headlines!"

RED ULTIMATUM is a must-read warning of just how far a power-hungry dictator will go to upset the balance of power and ignite a new Cold War."

WILLIAM GRIMSLEY, Major General, U.S. Army (Retired)

RED ULTIMATUM — The World on the Razor's Edge.

A former U.S. President's plane is mysteriously downed over the Atlantic Ocean. Revolutionary forces launch a surprise attack in Cairo. The U.S. Secretary of State is abducted in Panama. A North Korean ballistic missile submarine stealthily approaches the American West Coast. A Russian sleeper cell operative is activated within the halls of Congress. A female assassin sets her sights on a target in Washington D.C.'s National Mall.

At the center of this maelstrom is Russian President Nicolai Gorshkov, a master manipulator orchestrating a devious plan to destabilize the U.S. But China perceives Gorshkov's actions as a threat to its global ambitions and issues a stern ultimatum, setting the stage for a geopolitical showdown.

DAN REILLY RETURNS

Returning in RED ULTIMATUM is hero Dan Reilly, the astute hotel executive and covert CIA operative, who must navigate the intricate web of international deceit. As a trusted confidant of the kidnapped Secretary of State, Reilly must decipher complex moves on the global chessboard and is thrust into the thick of action across continents and oceans, confronting adversaries on land, in Cairo, Miami, Panama, the Columbian jungle, and Washington, D.C.
