

Televero Health Eliminates Wait Times with Same-Day, 7-Day-a-Week Online Psychiatry and Counseling Services

Patients experience better access and greater flexibility with newly added Sunday sessions and extended evening hours

AUSTIN, TX, UNITED STATES, February 25, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Televero Health is proud to announce the expansion of its service hours to better meet the growing demand for accessible mental health care. This expansion ensures that individuals and families can access mental health care at times that fit their schedules. Televero Health is now offering appointments on Sundays as well as extended weekend and evening availability.

The demand for behavioral health services continues to rise. We are removing barriers to care and ensuring more people can receive high-quality mental health support when they need it most.”

Ray Wolf, CEO of Televero Health

“The demand for behavioral health services continues to rise, and flexibility in scheduling is critical,” said Ray Wolf, CEO of Televero Health. “By expanding our availability, we are removing barriers to care and ensuring more people can receive high-quality mental health support when they need it most.”

This expansion is particularly beneficial for students, working professionals, and families who may find it challenging to schedule appointments during traditional business hours. Televero Health’s team of licensed mental health professionals will continue to offer a wide range of services, including therapy, counseling, and psychiatric support, all delivered through a convenient virtual platform.

With a commitment to accessibility, Televero Health accepts insurance and Medicaid, making high-quality virtual therapy and psychiatric services affordable for students, educators, families, and professionals.

Televero Health welcomes referrals from primary care physicians and specialty providers for behavioral health treatment, ensuring patients can secure a telehealth appointment within days rather than months. The practice also accepts new patients without a doctor's referral, offering same-day appointments.
