Dr. Leach's practice, located in Walnut Creek, CA, has long been at the forefront of personalized, compassionate care for women of all ages. With a focus on employing the most up-to-date healthcare technology and evidence-based treatments, Dr. Leach offers comprehensive OB/GYN services—including minimally invasive surgery, STD testing, MonaLisa Touch, C-sections, pap smears, and specialized menopause treatments—to ensure women across the Northern California area maintain optimal health and wellness.

A cornerstone of Dr. Leach's approach is his dedication to individualized menopause care. As a certified provider with The Menopause Society, he remains at the cutting edge of menopausal medicine. His expertise ensures that each patient receives tailored, nuanced treatment options ranging from hormone balancing to lifestyle-based interventions for managing the transition associated with perimenopause and menopause. This commitment to excellence is further exemplified by his ongoing efforts in continuing education and rigorous competency testing.

In an exciting development that underscores the practice's deep commitment to women's health, Marybeth Wakefield, NP, MSCP, has also achieved certification from The Menopause Society. Marybeth's accomplishment not only enhances the team's capacity to offer individualized and science-based care but also reflects the practice's unwavering focus on delivering the highest standard of menopause care.

“Navigating the changes of midlife and menopause requires more than just standard protocols—it demands a personalized, nuanced approach grounded in the latest scientific advancements,” said Dr. Leach. “With our advanced certifications and ongoing education, our team is uniquely equipped to provide transformative care that empowers women to live healthier, more vibrant lives during this pivotal stage.”

As the practice continues to welcome new patients and expand its services, both Dr. Leach and Marybeth are dedicated to maintaining an environment where each woman’s unique health needs are met with integrity, accuracy, and a passion for excellence. Their commitment to ongoing education and adherence to evidence-based practices assures patients that they are receiving care that is both innovative and reliably effective.
