BALTIMORE, MD, UNITED STATES,

February 26, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Maryland Vegan Eats proudly announces the return of its landmark Maryland Vegan Restaurant Month, running from February 28th through March 30th, 2024. This innovative culinary celebration, now in its fifteenth semi-annual iteration,

We're excited to continue promoting plant-based options in restaurants throughout Maryland and across the nation.”

Samantha Claassen & Naijha Wright-Brown

continues to transform the state's dining landscape by making plant-based options more accessible and exciting for all diners.

The month-long event kicks off with an exclusive launch party at The Lord Baltimore Hotel on Wednesday, February 26th, from 5:30-8:30 PM. Attendees will enjoy signature vegan bites from participating restaurants, a vegan wine tasting, and networking opportunities with the region's leading culinary innovators. The hotel is offering discounts on room accommodations throughout the month.

"We're excited to continue promoting plant-based options in restaurants throughout Maryland and across the nation," say co-founders Samantha Claassen of Golden West Café and Naijha Wright-Brown of The Land of Kush. Since its 2017 inception, the initiative has inspired similar programs in cities like Washington, D.C., Philadelphia, Colorado Springs, and Portland.

Unlike traditional restaurant weeks, this celebration encourages participating establishments to create unique plant-based dishes at accessible price points. Over 30 restaurants are participating, including renowned establishments such as The Land of Kush, Golden West Cafe, Miss Shirley's Cafe, Ekiben, and Toki Underground.

Key Features of the 2024 Celebration:

- > Month-long availability of special plant-based menu items
- > Competitive chef showcase with customer voting
- > Inclusive pricing to ensure accessibility
- > Participation from both vegan and omnivorous restaurants
- > Presenting sponsorship from Visit Maryland

The event has become a catalyst for culinary innovation, encouraging traditional restaurants to expand their plant-based offerings while providing a platform for established vegan eateries to showcase their expertise.
