GlobalBoost Media's Role & Strategic Partnership with MindWaveDAO

At the Global Family Office Summit, GlobalBoost Media played a key role by aligning its digital and blockchain expertise with discussions on future investment opportunities. This involvement was particularly highlighted through Dr. Vin Menon's session, which underscored the transformative potential of blockchain in wealth management and investment strategy.

Further strengthening this vision, MindWaveDAO and GlobalBoost Media have entered a strategic partnership to promote the NILA Token—a blockchain-powered asset designed to revolutionize digital investments. This collaboration leverages both companies' expertise in blockchain technology, media, and investment strategies, aiming to expand the reach of decentralized finance and introduce innovative investment solutions to a broader audience.

MindWaveDAO Announces the Launch of NILA Tokens & Ongoing Public Sale

In conjunction with the summit, MindWaveDAO officially announced the launch of its native utility token, NILA, which is now available for public sale at sale.mindwavedao.com.

The NILA token serves as the backbone of the MindWave ecosystem, offering holders:

- Governance rights within the platform
- Access to exclusive DeFi products
