Rising from the Ashes: Megamix Expo 2025 Leads Recovery Effort for Wildfire-Devastated Businesses

This year's expo is especially significant as it focuses on supporting recovery efforts for businesses impacted by recent wildfires in Altadena and neighboring areas. A major highlight of the event is a collaborative panel discussion featuring representatives from the Small Business Administration (SBA), Small Business Development Centers (SBDC), and SCORE Los Angeles. Taking place on Wednesday, March 12, from 6 PM to 7 PM, this session will provide attendees with vital information about funding programs, counseling services, federal contracting certifications, and other essential resources for entrepreneurs.

The discussion will also address specialized programs for underserved communities, including minority business owners, veterans, women entrepreneurs, and individuals with disabilities.

In a show of solidarity with businesses impacted by recent wildfires in Altadena, Megamix Expo is offering free booth spaces and complimentary admission to affected entrepreneurs, contact Altadena Chamber of Commerce for more information. This initiative aims to help these businesses reconnect with their customers and take critical steps toward recovery. Additionally, a special panel discussion titled "Rising from the Ashes: Navigating Property, Debris Removal & Legal Rights" will provide expert guidance on topics such as insurance claims and disaster recovery processes, designed to assist property owners and businesses in navigating the challenges of rebuilding after natural disasters.

Innovative Experiences with LED Technology

Enhancing the event experience this year are cutting-edge LED screens provided by LED Rentals
