/EINPresswire.com/ -- Osner's FC is thrilled to announce the addition of Michael Vazquez as the club's new Assistant Coach. Vazquez brings a wealth of experience and a passion for player development, making him a key addition to the coaching staff as Osner's FC prepares for its inaugural season in the NPSL and UPSL First Division. With a history of coaching multiple teams and leading championship-winning squads, Vazquez is ready to help elevate Osner's FC to new heights.

A Strong Coaching Background

Michael Vazquez holds License C, License B, and an additional coaching license from Colombia, making him a well-certified coach with international-level expertise.

Since 2018, he has built an impressive resume, coaching at various levels and developing players who have gone on to compete at high levels.

Vazquez has been instrumental in the growth of multiple soccer programs, having coached at Latino's FC, where he successfully ran his own team, and New Amsterdam Academy, where he served as an assistant academy coach. His influence extended to New York Braveheart, where he took on the role of head coach, and Hofstra University Club Soccer, where he was an assistant coach, helping mold athletes into better players and leaders.

Currently, Vazquez is the Director of Coaching at NY Dash, where he oversees youth development and tactical implementation. His most recent success came with NY Renegades, where he served as an assistant coach and played a key role in securing back-to-back conference championships.

Michael Vazquez joins Osner's FC with a clear vision: to help the club develop a winning culture, foster elite player development, and create a team-first mentality that will ensure success both on and off the field. He is eager to help shape the future of Osner's FC by implementing modern coaching techniques and building a competitive squad.

"Joining Osner's FC is an incredible opportunity. This is a club with ambition, passion, and a strong commitment to the game. I want to bring my experience to help mold players into not just great athletes, but also great individuals," said Vazquez. "The goal is not only to compete but to dominate. I want our players to embrace a winning mentality and understand that success starts with discipline, hard work, and unity."

Developing the Next Generation

Vazquez is a firm believer in youth development, having spent years working with academy players and helping young athletes transition to higher levels of play. His philosophy is centered around technical skill development, tactical awareness, and mental strength, ensuring that each player maximizes their potential both on and off the pitch.

I'm ready to get to work. We have a talented squad, and now it's about maximizing that potential. I want our players to believe in themselves, push their limits, and play every match with intensity."

His commitment to off-the-field player growth is equally important, as he seeks to mentor athletes in leadership, sportsmanship, and personal development. "Success in soccer is about more than just skill. It's about mindset, responsibility, and perseverance. I want to prepare our players not just for this season, but for their future careers in soccer and beyond."
