Leisure travel market segmentation include type, age group, expenditure type, sales channel, and region. The UK is on the verge of Brexit and no deal exit might have appalling ramifications on the outbound tourism market. According to leisure travel market analysis, a no-deal Brexit might cause a drop of about 5-7% in outbound travelers from the UK. Spain, France, and Italy would see a significant drop in tourists traveling from the UK owing to the weaker exchange rate, imposition of tariffs, higher airfare rates, and higher travel insurance premiums. A decrease in the value of British currency will result in changing UK resident's preferences for domestic holidays. A no-deal scenario will result in increased overall expenditure incurred by UK residents. No deal exit will have a cascading effect on the UK economy, which will negatively impact the UK outbound tourism industry.

The key players profiled in the report include Expedia Group, Priceline Group, Carlson Wagonlit Travel, JTB Americas Group, World Travel, Inc., American Express Travel, Travel Leaders Group, TUI Group., Thomas Cook (India) Limited and Cox & Kings Ltd.
