"Pride Month is all about visibility, celebration, and empowerment, and this event perfectly embodies all of those elements," said Robert Boo, CEO, The Pride Center at Equality Park.

"Thanks to the unwavering support of Seminole Hard Rock Hotel & Casino Hollywood, this brunch will not only unite community members and allies, but it will deliver an incredible experience directly benefiting The Pride Center's mission to uplift and serve the LGBTQ+ community."

The highlight of the anticipated event will be an over-the-top drag show featuring headline performers Christopher Peterson, representing AquaPlex Key West, and Michael Dean as Cher, plus South Florida drag icons Daisy Deadpetals, Velvet LeNore, Erika Norell, and Aaliyah Jae. Show-stopping performances with a professional cast of dancers will bring the house down.

WSVN Deco Drive Reporter Alex Miranda will host The Pride Center Honors awards ceremony recognizing Ana Navarro, Nadine Smith and The Our Fund Foundation for their unwavering commitment to advancing LGBTQ+ rights, advocacy, and community empowerment.

Ana Navarro is a Nicaraguan American political strategist and commentator. She appears on various television programs and news outlets, including CNN, CNN en Español, ABC News, and Telemundo. She is also a co-host of ABC's daytime talk show The View and has garnered Daytime Emmy Award nominations for her work.

As executive director of Equality Florida, the state's largest LGBTQ+ civil rights organization, Smith is longtime activist and advocate and a driving force in the fight for equality, earning national recognition for her leadership and impact.
