WeCo Rooter Promotes Brian Hensley to Service Manager, Strengthening Commitment to Quality and Customer Care

WEST COLUMBIA, SC, UNITED STATES, March 18, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- WeCo Rooter has announced the promotion of Brian Hensley to Service Manager. A longtime member of the team, Hensley has been instrumental in helping rebuild and grow the business since its early days. With his “can-do” attitude and hands-on approach to customer service, he will continue to strengthen WeCo Rooter’s commitment to quality, efficiency, and rapid response.

“At WeCo Rooter, our focus is on exceeding our customers’ expectations, and Brian consistently puts their needs first,” said Lacey Peevey, Vice President of WeCo Rooter. “He has so much to offer — not only to the company and his teammates, but to the customers in the communities we serve.”

A Well-Earned Promotion

Hensley steps into his new role as Service Manager at a pivotal time, as WeCo Rooter expands and invests in advanced plumbing solutions for residential and commercial customers. The company has earned a reputation for transparent pricing, no hidden fees, and round-the-clock service, setting it apart in an industry where surprise costs are common.

As Service Manager, Hensley will oversee field operations, enhance technician training, and drive WeCo Rooter’s commitment to providing prompt, top-tier plumbing and septic solutions. His leadership will help WeCo Rooter not only keep up with the increasing demand but play a crucial role in maintaining the company’s high standard of customer service.

What It Means for West Columbia Customers

WeCo Rooter is committed to serving the community with a 24/7 approach to plumbing that
