

Midwest Auto Shop Redefines Work-Life Balance for Auto Technicians

A family-owned Missouri shop offers no-weekend schedules, top pay, and relocation support, transforming automotive careers and personal lives.

BRENTWOOD, MO, UNITED STATES, March 22, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Steger Service in Brentwood, Missouri, announced groundbreaking job opportunities for experienced Automotive Technicians, offering industry-leading pay, a revolutionary no-weekend work policy, and relocation assistance. This initiative addresses the industry's chronic issues of technician burnout and dissatisfaction by prioritizing a supportive, balanced work environment.

Steger Service

Traditional automotive shops squeeze technicians into relentless schedules and poor working conditions, often causing burnout and dissatisfaction. Talented professionals routinely sacrifice weekends, personal time, and family moments.

Steger Service offers a powerful alternative: No weekends, guaranteed work-life balance, and a supportive, growth-oriented culture in a family-owned environment.

Work-Life Balance Revolution

Technicians enjoy a no-weekend policy, reclaiming precious time to recharge and connect with family. Why it matters: Your career should enrich—not consume—your life." Weekends should belong to our families and friends, not the shop floor," says owner Chris Steger.

Industry-Leading Pay & Benefits

Technicians receive a highly competitive salary of $80K–$110K annually plus performance-based bonuses. Why it matters: Respect for talent demands fair, clear, and outstanding compensation. "Great work deserves great rewards. It's that simple," says Chris Steger.

Relocation Assistance Program

Exceptional candidates nationwide can now seamlessly relocate to Missouri with complete support. Why it matters: Skilled technicians deserve opportunities without barriers. "We invest in great people, no matter where they're coming from," affirms Steger.
