

Kyle Lucks' Original Jack Nicklaus Portrait Sells at Auction to Benefit Chasin A Dream Foundation

The painting depicts Jack Nicklaus at the iconic 17th hole at Pebble Beach, and was signed by the golfer personally for the foundation's gala.

JUPITER, FL, UNITED STATES, March 24, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- An original painting by sports artist Kyle Lucks, depicting golf legend Jack Nicklaus at the iconic 17th hole at Pebble Beach, recently sold at auction to benefit Chasin A Dream Foundation. The nonprofit is dedicated to supporting children battling life-threatening illnesses.

The painting's striking, high-energy composition captures the legacy of one of golf's greatest icons, and it was personally autographed by Jack Nicklaus in his Juno Beach office ahead of the auction. Lucks, known for his ability to recreate iconic moments in sports, culture, and society with intricate detail, donated the piece specifically for the cause, adding another layer of significance to an already extraordinary work of art.

It is my pleasure to donate my art to Chasin A Dream Foundation, and it was truly an honor to have Jack Nicklaus autograph the painting”

The auction took place on March 13, 2025, at Chasin A Dream Foundation's annual gala at The Pelican Club in Jupiter, Florida. Auctioneer Neil Saffer led the bidding, and the painting ultimately sold to an anonymous collector and donor, helping the event raise over $500,000 in total. The final sale directly supports the foundation's mission of providing critical assistance to local children and families in need.

"It is my pleasure to donate my art to Chasin A Dream Foundation, and it was truly an honor to have Jack Nicklaus autograph the painting," said Kyle Lucks. "Knowing that this painting will not only celebrate Jack's legacy but also help make a real difference for families in our community makes it incredibly special."

Chasin A Dream Foundation is based in Jupiter, Florida and was founded in 2017 by Lori Griffith. The 501c3 non-profit is committed to providing financial and emotional support to families with children facing life-threatening illnesses.
