

Bridge Wins FinTech Breakthrough Award for Business Lending Excellence

AI-Powered Platform Transforms Business Lending

CHARLOTTE, NC, UNITED STATES, March 26, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Bridge, the leading digital platform revolutionizing business lending by connecting middle-market borrowers with a vast network of debt capital providers, has been named the 2025 Fintech Breakthrough Award winner for Best Overall Business Lending Company. This prestigious recognition highlights Bridge's innovative approach to financing, leveraging AI-powered technology to streamline the lending process and expand access to capital for businesses across industries.

"This award reinforces Bridge's leadership in fintech innovation," said Rohit Mathur, CEO and Co-founder of Bridge. "We are transforming the business lending landscape by providing borrowers with the right financing solutions at the right time. This achievement reflects the strength of our corporate partners, our extensive lender network, and our dedicated team."

Bridge's platform utilizes proprietary AI-driven technology to match borrowers with lenders, simplifying and accelerating the financing process. By analyzing borrower project details and lender criteria, Bridge fosters efficient and productive lending relationships, ensuring businesses can secure the capital they need faster and more effectively.

"Bridge is using AI to transform the financing experience, especially for hotel developers," said Harte Thompson, COO and co-founder of Bridge. "Our AI-generated Offering Memorandums turn what used to take weeks and significant expense into quick, high-quality presentations lenders trust. This improves transparency, streamlines underwriting, and uses innovation to better connect developers with capital providers. We're excited to make it easier and faster for developers to secure financing."

Key Features of Bridge's Business Lending Platform
