Darlene Agag

Building on nearly 20 years of corporate leadership and personal relocation experience, CEO Darlene Agag has refined the company’s mission to deliver unparalleled, high-touch support that ensures clients remain productive and focused—no matter how complex the move.

“Our purpose is to simplify and elevate every aspect of relocation,” says Agag. “By guiding our clients through neighborhood tours, school visits, local tax and cost-of-living insights, and seamless logistics, we remove the roadblocks that can make relocation disruptive. We set ourselves apart by treating each transition as an opportunity for growth, not a source of stress—and that’s the heart of The Hesstia Group experience.”

From C-suite executives relocating globally for high-profile roles, to healthcare leaders overseeing critical transitions, to coaches and athletes who require discretion and speed, The Hesstia Group delivers a white-glove approach that covers every detail.

The Hesstia Group works with:

- Talent acquisition leaders and HR teams onboarding executive-level hires
- Healthcare networks and hospital systems securing C-suite and physician leadership
- Athletes, coaches, and agents needing fast, confidential transitions
- Relocation management firms and recruiters seeking a concierge partner
- Discerning families and high-profile individuals managing complex personal moves

With Hesstia, clients can expect more than a move—they can expect a fully orchestrated experience.

The Hesstia Experience:

At the core of the firm's approach is a belief that relocation should feel elevated, not transactional. Each engagement begins with a personal strategy session to understand lifestyle needs, career timelines, and long-term goals. From there, a dedicated project manager oversees every detail, offering a single point of contact from planning to placement.

"Clients are often balancing business decisions, family logistics, and urgent timelines," says Agag. "Our job is to make sure everything in their world still runs smoothly—and feels effortless."

Whether relocating mid-season, onboarding a healthcare executive within 30 days, or helping a family settle into a new market before the school year starts, Hesstia makes it happen with speed, grace, and privacy.

Key Service Pillars Include:

- Concierge-Level Logistics: Streamlined packing, moving, and full household setup for minimal stress and maximum efficiency.
- Local Knowledge Onboarding: In-depth market, neighborhood, and community insights—providing clarity on taxes, schools, cost of living, and cultural amenities.
- High-Touch Coordination: Personalized introductions to trusted local partners, realtors, and key community connections.
- End-to-End Support: A single point of contact for everything from utility setup to lifestyle services, ensuring a fully managed, "white-glove" experience.

A New Look for a New Chapter:

With this brand evolution, The Hesstia Group also unveils a refreshed digital presence designed to reflect its warm, client-focused ethos—rooted in the spirit of Hestia, the Greek goddess of home and hearth. This identity underscores the company's commitment to creating a welcoming, luxury relocation experience from the initial consultation to the final box unpacked.
