The introductions we've facilitated have led to co-investments, expanded philanthropic efforts, and most importantly, lifelong friendships between members of our network.”

Steven Saltzstein, CEO of Force Family Office

Family Office Breakfast Club, Force Family Office has partnered with leading law firm Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati to host a breakfast for Family Offices in the Bay Area.

Force Family Office is the largest community of Family Offices in the U.S. and started their Breakfast Club two years ago to provide an opportunity for principles of Family Offices to meet each other, share best practices, and discuss the issues that are most important to them. So far this year, Force has held networking events in New York, West Palm Beach, and Dallas with more breakfasts planned for Detroit, Naples, and Sarasota.

“One of the greatest privileges I get at Force is being able to bring families together. That's why these breakfasts are so important,” said Steven Saltzstein, CEO of Force Family Office. “The introductions we've facilitated have led to co-investments, expanded philanthropic efforts, and most importantly, lifelong friendships between members of our network.”

“With a strong history of advising family offices, we are pleased to host this breakfast in collaboration with FORCE Family Office. We believe this event will provide a valuable opportunity for family offices to share insights and foster meaningful connections,” said Squire Servance, Senior Of Counsel, Wilson Sonsini.

Family Offices who are interested in participating in the San Francisco breakfast or any other Force event can sign up via their website at forcefamilyoffice.com/upcoming-events.
