

YWCA Greater Los Angeles Launches Inaugural YHER Event to Honor and Inspire Women Across Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, April 3, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- YWCA Greater Los Angeles Launches Inaugural YHER Event to Honor and Inspire Women Across Los Angeles

YWCA Greater Los Angeles is proud to announce the inaugural YHER (YWCA Honor. Elevate. Respect) event, an empowering gathering bringing together women changemakers from across Los Angeles for an unforgettable day of inspiration, empowerment, and celebration. Taking place on Tuesday, May 6, 2025, at the iconic Grammy Museum in Downtown Los Angeles, the event offers organizations a meaningful opportunity to honor the exceptional women driving excellence in their companies and communities.

The event features an impressive lineup of speakers renowned for their expertise and ability to inspire action. Attendees will hear from Dr. Heather Backstrom, a celebrated leadership coach, who will provide insights on harnessing the power of self-promotion; Wendy Gladney, a respected relationship and community expert, who will share strategies for effective networking; and Sarah Khambatta, PCC, a professional coach, who will offer impactful advice on overcoming imposter syndrome. Together, these thought leaders will empower attendees with practical tools for personal and professional growth.

"YWCA Greater Los Angeles has long championed the phenomenal women who shape our communities," said Lori Carmona, YWCA Greater Los Angeles CEO. "With YHER, we continue this legacy by amplifying their voices and celebrating their achievements across Greater Los Angeles."

In addition to these inspiring sessions, attendees will have the unique opportunity to receive
