Association (OSCA) is pleased to invite media representatives to the 2025 Mississauga Mayor's School Cricket Awards and the official launch of the Mississauga Division of the OSCA Premier's Cup School Cricket 2025.

This annual event, a flagship celebration of OSCA's school cricket initiatives, recognizes the outstanding achievements of student cricketers and celebrates schools that are leading the way in introducing cricket into the physical education curriculum and fostering inclusive sports environments.

Distinguished guests—including Mississauga Mayor Carolyn Parrish, City Councillors, school board officials, and OSCA's valued community partners—will gather to honour young athletes and the educators and coaches who support them. The awards highlight not only excellence on the field, but also the values of leadership, camaraderie, integrity, and fair play that define the spirit of cricket.

This year's event also marks the exciting launch of the Mississauga Division of the OSCA

Highlights from the 2024 event: Young champions proudly display their trophy showcasing talent, teamwork, and the growing impact of cricket in schools.

Premier's Cup, a province-wide school cricket competition designed to provide structured, competitive opportunities for students, while continuing to build the sport at the grassroots level.

OSCA's Impact & Partnerships

Over the past year, OSCA has expanded its reach across Ontario, delivering curriculum-aligned cricket programs that promote wellness, inclusion, and active living. With the support of the Peel District School Board, Dufferin-Peel Catholic District School Board, Mississauga Sports Council, TD Bank, Rogers, Pattison Outdoor, CIMA, and other partners, OSCA remains committed to using cricket as a tool for engagement, community-building, and student development.

Highlights from the 2024 event: Cricketers honored with the Spirit of Cricket Award, embodying the values of respect, fair play, and integrity that define the essence of the game.

OSCA energizes young minds, excites their passion for sports, and empowers them to lead with confidence and integrity—building a brighter future through cricket.”
