The EuroCup-3 series (eurocup3.org), launched to bridge the competitive gap between Formula 4 and Formula 3, offers a high-performance platform for the world's top young talents like Emmo. The 2025 season will feature 16 races across premier European circuits, including the Red Bull Ring in Austria (16-18 MAY), Algarve International Circuit in Portugal (6-8 JUN), Circuit Paul Ricard in France (20-22 JUN), Monza Circuit in Italy (5-6 JUL), TT Circuit Assen in the Netherlands (8-10 AUG), Spa-Francorchamps in Belgium, Circuito de Jerez in Spain, and Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya in Spain.

□ PH PLUS: A Pioneer in Biodegradable Packaging & Global Sustainability

This collaboration extends beyond the racetrack. At the heart of the partnership is PH PLUS, a brand that is redefining hydration through sustainability. Known for its premium 9.5 pH alkaline water, PH PLUS uses advanced purification methods—including reverse osmosis and organic mineralization—to support vitality, digestion, and overall well-being.

In line with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), PH PLUS has partnered with Enso Plastics to develop fully biodegradable bottles that maintain durability while accelerating decomposition, significantly reducing environmental impact. With a growing presence across Latin America and the United States, including operational hubs in Miami and Houston, PH PLUS continues to expand its global footprint through strategic investment from BlueGrace Energy Bolivia (BGEB). The company remains firmly committed to health-focused innovation and eco-conscious packaging solutions. Learn more at www.getphplus.com.

□ BGEB: Leading Sustainable Finance with Blockchain & Verified Carbon Credits

Supporting this forward-thinking alliance is BlueGrace Energy Bolivia (BGEB), a key shareholder in PH PLUS and a recognized leader in sustainable finance. BGEB is advancing the voluntary carbon credit market through cutting-edge blockchain solutions, including the BlueGrace Amazon Carbon Token (BGACT)—a tokenized carbon credit backed by the certified ISIN UK.BG.MAX 785.985.257. This token is linked to a $2 billion equity-based Forest Conservation and Restoration Project, encompassing over 20.5 million acres of the Amazon.

The ISIN, secured through the expert diligence of Maximance 2030, guarantees the integrity of each BGACT token, aligning it with international standards to ensure transparency, accountability, and real environmental impact.

As part of this motorsport partnership, BGEB will fulfill its sponsorship entirely in BGACT tokens, providing a real-world example of how tokenized carbon credits can be integrated into commercial agreements with global reach.

To ensure accessibility and trust, BGACT is now listed on NeXchange, a blockchain-based marketplace for ISIN-backed carbon assets. This platform empowers investors, corporations, and climate-conscious organizations to buy and trade verified carbon credits in a secure, traceable, and performance-driven environment.

This alliance sets a powerful precedent by connecting motorsports, sustainability, and financial innovation—proving that speed and responsibility can move forward together.

“This partnership with the Fittipaldi racing team marks a strategic step forward in connecting sustainability with sports innovation,” said Julio José Montenegro, CEO of BlueGrace Energy Bolivia. “It gives motorsport stakeholders a direct way to offset carbon footprints and promote responsible environmental stewardship.”
