

ASIAN BEAUTY MARKET LEADER NUTRIWORKS HARNESSES PROVEN POWER OF SELF-CARE 'SUPER OILS' WITH REFLEXOLOGY FOOT PATCHES

BOCA RATON, FL, UNITED STATES, April 21, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Asian beauty market leader NutriWorks, creators of the Rest, Flow, and Glow reflexology-simulating foot patches, says it has revolutionized affordable, natural self-care by harnessing the power of an exclusive essential oil combination.

Derived from thousands of years of knowledge and Traditional Chinese Medicine, NutriWorks' BeautyRest patches strategically combine six essential oils to trigger holistic stimulation of nerves in the feet, promoting improved relaxation without chemical supplements.

"We've taken familiar oils like lavender, sage, and basil and artfully blended them with increasingly popular 'super oils' like ylang ylang, bergamot, and bitter orange," said Amy Wong, NutriWorks Co-Founder. "The final combination is designed to help clear the mind, restore balance, elevate mood, and soothe the body."

BeautyRest's exclusive powerhouse formulation does not penetrate the skin. As lavender helps soothe and relax, sage brings balance and calm while basil helps clear and strengthen the mind. Ylang ylang is increasingly growing in recognition in the U.S. as a 'Super Oil' that can comfort the senses and promote relaxation. Bergamot uplifts and bitter orange is hailed for enlivening emotions and elevating mood.

"When the patches are applied to the reflexology zones of the feet, the scents and gentle stimulation come together to target and help support sleep, subsequently helping to improve energy levels in the morning.”

According to data collected by Statista, seven out of ten U.S. consumers use essential oils and aromatherapy products in their personal self-care. Additionally, Cleveland Clinic has highlighted the benefits of certain scents, including lavender, bergamot, and orange.

Wong added, “Our success on Amazon, Walmart.com and OneLavi further demonstrates that American consumers are seeking accessible, convenient, and affordable solutions to daily sleep challenges. We mindfully developed BeautyRest to safely, naturally and effectively provide support.”
